Purpose

The purpose of this policy and procedure is to outline Masters in Education Pty Ltd 's approach to managing fees and refunds and to demonstrate how fees paid in advance are protected by Masters in Education Pty Ltd .

This complies with Clauses 5.3, 7.3 and Schedule 6 of the Standards.

Definitions

ASQA means Australian Skills Quality Authority, the national VET regulator and the RTO's registering body

Standards means the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015 from the VET Quality Framework

Policy

1. Protection of fees paid in advance

Masters in Education Pty Ltd protects the fees that are paid in advance by students.

- Masters in Education Pty Ltd does not require a student to ever pay more than $1500 in advance for services not yet provided, either prior to course commencement or at any stage during their course. Fees will be paid off during the course in instalments according to a set payment plan.

2. Fees and refund information

Prospective and current students are advised of the fees associated with a course on the relevant Course Outline. In compliance with Clause 5.3 of the Standards, this is provided prior to enrolment or commencement of training, whichever is first. Fee information includes:

- All relevant fee information including fees that must be paid and payment terms
- Deposits and refund information and conditions relating to these
- The learners rights as a consumer including any cooling off period

Refund information is outlined on the Student Agreement and in the Student Handbook.

SC15: Fees and Refunds Policy & Procedures

3. Inclusions in course fees

Unless otherwise specified, course fees include all the training and assessment required for students to achieve the qualification or course in which they are enrolling.

Course fees include the issuance of a testamur and record of results and/or statement of attainment. For additional copies or re-issuing of any of these documents an additional fee is applicable. This fee is currently $100 per request.

4. Refunds

All course fees, include a non-refundable deposit / enrolment fee which is outlined on the Course Outline. The deposit is non-refundable except in the unlikely situation where Masters in Education Pty Ltd is required to cancel a course due to insufficient numbers or for other unforeseen circumstances. In this case, students will receive a full refund of their deposit.

Students who withdraw from a course and wish to seek a refund or have the amount they owe on their fees reduced, must apply to Masters in Education Pty Ltd in writing, outlining the details and reason for their request. Students who have not completed a withdrawal form are not eligible for consideration of a refund or reduction in fees.

Eligibility for a refund will be assessed based on the services provided to the student and the costs incurred by Masters in Education Pty Ltd in order to provide those services to the student.

The outcome of the refund assessment will be provided in writing to the student's registered address, outlining the decision and reasons for the decision along with any applicable refund or adjustment notice. Refund assessments can be appealed following our Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure.
